

How to Install Package from Repository

The steps below will assist in installing a package into the Repository. The repository stores a copy of the information so that you can recall the information when needed.

1. Choose Execute Action > Package Management > Install Package via Repository.

2. Choose a package from the list.

3. Click Install Package.
4. Viewing the Results tab you can see the process ran successfully.

